Chuck Price is the Waupaca County Health and Human Services Director and current Vice President of the Wisconsin County Human Service Association. Chuck has been in a Director/Deputy Director role within the County structure for the past 9 years. Along with the administrative experience, Chuck has 23 years of experience working with children and families. He has practiced within the Wraparound Milwaukee project and had several years of supervisory experience in both the Child Protection systems of the Bureau of Milwaukee Child Welfare (urban) and Wood County Department of Social Services (rural). Chuck has a Bachelor of Social Welfare degree from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee and a Master's of Science Degree in Human Service Administration from Springfield College.

Shannon Kelly is the Deputy Director for Waupaca County Department of Health and Human Services. Previously, Shannon managed four long-term care programs for children with special health care needs also for Waupaca County DHHS. Shannon also has eight years of experience working with children and youth with special health care needs in the medical setting working as a Certified Child Life Specialist for Children’s Hospital of Wisconsin. Shannon has a Master's degree in Youth Development and a Bachelor’s degree in Family Community Services with an emphasis on early childhood development, both from Michigan State University.

Kasey Kaepernick is the Trauma Informed Care Coordinator and Healthy Beginnings Manager for Waupaca County Department of Health and Human Services. He is also a Wisconsin Master ACE (Adverse Childhood Experiences) Interface Trainer and he chairs the Waupaca Child Abuse Prevention Coalition. Kasey has over eight years of experience doing home visitation. Prior to working for Waupaca County Department of Health and Human Services, Kasey worked with children 0-13 years of age as a child care teacher. He has a Bachelor's of Science from the University of Wisconsin in Stevens Point Wisconsin in Family Life Education.

Lisa Grasshoff is the Rehabilitation Manager at Waupaca County Industries, a division of the Waupaca County Department of Health and Human Services that provides vocational training and support for adults who have disabilities. For the last 12 years her focus has been providing vocational rehabilitation services to adults with disabilities, eight of those years being at Waupaca County Industries. Lisa is also a Wisconsin Master ACE (Adverse Childhood Experiences) Interface Trainer. Lisa graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point with a degree in Psychology with a Human Services Emphasis. Her passion for helping children, youth, and adults to thrive in spite of hardships has led Lisa to share her personal journey of childhood adversity and resiliency.