

2022 Schedule of NCWWI Events

Child Welfare Workforce Development Month

September 12-16

Child Welfare Worker Appreciation Week

How will you show your appreciation to colleagues? Get no-cost tips in the 2022 Recognition Event Kit and encourage those around you to celebrate, practice self-care, and develop a growth mindset this September.

September 13

Child Welfare Worker Recognition Event 3:00-4:00 pm EDT

This is our most highly anticipated event of the year, and NCWWI and the Children's Bureau can't wait to celebrate with you! Visit our website to learn about the emcees and speakers that will help you reflect, connect, and recharge. Register: <https://conta.cc/3PunevL>

September 21

Learning and Living Leadership Tool Kit 2:00-3:00 pm EDT

Leadership can happen from "every seat," and you'll need to be at your very best to lead into the future. Join us to reflect on your leadership and explore how NCWWI's Learning & Living Leadership Tool Kit can help develop new skills. Register: <https://conta.cc/3QI6zWh>

September 23

Building Resilience for Child Welfare Professionals 1:00-2:30 pm EDT

Join us for this interactive, collaborative workshop hosted with the Florida Institute for Child Welfare. Learn about the tools and resources available to help yourself and your clients respond with resilience in the face of challenges. Register: <https://conta.cc/3PUGYbq>

September 29

Supporting a Culture of Wellness for Emerging Leaders 1:00-2:00 pm EDT

Join NCWWI and CWLA to hear from a panel of public and private agencies implementing multifaceted strategies that support employee wellness and well-being. Register: <https://bit.ly/3A7QH88>

NCWWI.org/CWworkforce