September 11-15
Child Welfare Worker Appreciation Week
How will you show your appreciation to colleagues? Get no-cost tips in the 2023 Recognition Event Kit on our website. Let us know how you’re celebrating by including the hashtag #WeAreChildWelfare on social media.

September 12
Child Welfare Worker Recognition Event
3:00-4:00 p.m. EDT
This is our most highly anticipated event of the year, and NCWWI and the Children’s Bureau can’t wait to celebrate with you! Visit our website to learn how to thank staff during this national event.

September 21
Child Welfare Virtual Expo (CWVE)
10:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. EDT
This year’s focus is on jurisdictional strategies to recruit and retain child welfare professionals and will explore programs and emerging practices to strengthen and support a diverse workforce.

September 25
4 C's of Workforce Development: Culture, Competency, Capacity, & Community
3:00 - 4:15 p.m. EDT
Learn actionable steps to incorporate two new volumes of CWLA’s Standards of Excellence to be released this spring/summer: Workforce Diversity and Preparedness and Organizational Culture.

September 29
(Re)Ignite Your Spark
2:00 - 3:00 p.m. EDT
Explore strategies and skills that address our challenges and help us recognize when we are making a difference, reigniting the spark that compelled us to do this work in the first place!

Register at NCWWI.org/CWworkforce